DEFINITION OF CULTURAL AND CREATIVE ART

Culture is the custom, belief and way of life cum the social organization of any particular community, group or people. Art in its entirety reflects the cultural ways, societal interest and belief of the people. Art serves as the means of expressing any community cultural values and belief.

As it relates to us here in Africa and in Nigeria in particular, our fore- fathers believed in idol worshipping in form of gods which involve the carving and artistic creation of images, masquerades, cultural dance, festival singing and dances, creating beautifully decorated shrines all to worship these gods.

It is therefore clear that culture and creative art goes together which further buttresses the saying that Art is life and life is art.

INTRODUCTION TO ART

DEFINITION OF ART

1. Art can be defined as a means of self-expression of our inner feelings or ideas about things, people and environment in general using different medium and materials.

2. Art can also be `defined as the visual and non-visual representation of human thoughts.

BRANCHES OF ART

ART

Drawing	Graphics	Music	Bookwriting
Painting	Textile	Drama	Poetry
Sculpture	Ceramics	Dance	Journalism
	Photography

Art is divided into two major branches. They are:
A.Visual Art and B. Non-Visual Art

A. VISUAL ART: The word visual is coined from the word "vision" which has to do with sight, i.e. seeing things with the use of the eyes. Visual art is that form of art which you need your eyes to appreciate such as paintings, pictures, drawing.

FINE ART – This is art done for the purpose of beauty (aesthetics) only.

APPLIED ART- Also known as commercial or industrial art. This form of art serves a functional purpose. They are mostly sold for money hence the name commercial art from the word (Commerce). It is also called industrial art because most of it is produced in the industries using machines such as lithographic printing machines, industrial loom e.t.c.

B. NON-VISUAL ART: Non visual art is the art we cannot see with our eyes and feel with our hands but rather, it appeals to our minds, emotions and feelings.

Sub branches of non- visual art include:

PERFORMING ART: dance, drama and dance

LITERARY ART: prose, reading, poetry, journalism, novel writing, book writing.

ARTIST, ARTISTE, AND ARTISAN

ARTIST: A person who is involved in any visual aspect of art. Example: painting, sculpture, drawing, etc.

HISTORY AND ORIGIN OF ART

The word "ART" originated from a Latin word "ARTI" which means "to do well". Art activities can be traced back to the early man who wrote, drew, and made engravings on the cave walls and rock surfaces.

The early men used old materials and techniques to paint, scratch and draw on the walls of their caves. Such paintings were carried out with the earth colours such as: Red, yellow, black, and white. All sourced from nature hence the name, earth colours. Mixed with animal fat to form a kind of oil paint which makes it hard to wash off easily (permanent).

In some cases, they used old farming implements (carved stones) to scratch on the walls of their caves (engraving). The instruments include: stones, animal bones.

HISTORY OF EARLY MEN/ PREHISTORIC ART

This refers to the period before events were recorded. At this time, there were no written records of events as we have today. Examples of this early men art were discovered at Altamira in Northern Spain, Tibeshi Plateau, North Africa, etc.

History is the record of series of events or "The study of past events particularly in human affairs". While PRE-HISTORIC: means before the record of past events. This also refers to the early men (cave men art/period).

The art of the early men include paintings, drawings and engraving done on the cave walls or rocks. They used earth colours (colours common with nature e.g. green for leaves, red for blood, red/ brown for soil, black for skin colour/ hair colour) mixed with animal fat to paint on the walls of their caves.

The pre – historic people were hunters and wanderers. (Moving from place to place in search of food). It dates back to 200,000 BC which can be grouped into five (5) stages.

PALEOLITIHIC OR OLD STONE AGE (35, 000 – 25,000 BC): This was the period of no written record. They were wandering and hunting for food and animals. They used stone for various domestic purposes such as cutting (knife), hunting (spear), breaking of woods (axes), hunting (bow & arrow) etc. They also painted on the walls of their caves.

MESOLITHIC OR MIDDLE STONE AGE (25,000 – 12,000 BC): This is the period where the early men were involved in the making of spears with animal bones used for hunting with more drawing and paintings of animal (kills) on the walls of their caves.

NEOLITHIC OR NEW STONE AGE (12,000 – 4,000 BC): At this stage, the early men became more civilized with improved farming tools. They planted crops and used clothes.

BRONZE AGE (4, 000- 2, 000BC) : This is the stage where the early men built huge architectural monuments and discovered tin and copper as well.

IRONAGE (2000BC-TILLDATE): Here, the early men lived a modern type of life with modern facilities.

REASONS FOR EARLY MEN ART

1.For religious /magical purposes.

2.For ritual purposes.

ELEMENTS AND PRINCIPLES OF ART
ELEMENTS OF ART

These are those necessary things that are needed by the artists in drawing and designing in order for the art work to come out successful. They include:

LINE: It is the foundation of any drawing exercise. It can also be said to be the distance between two points. Every drawing begins and ends with lines. We have different types of lines.

a. Vertical lines
b. Horizontal lines
c. Curved lines
d. Wavy lines
e. Zigzag lines
f. Spiral lines

2. COLOUR: These are local pigments gotten from nature. e.g. Leaves (green) fruits, etc. Colour makes the drawing or design beautiful. Hence it is an important element.

3. TEXTURE: This is the surface quality or feel of an object or drawing / design. We have (2) types of texture. (a) Smooth or Apple texture (b) Rough or Pineapple texture.

4. TONE / VALUE: This is the relative lightness or darkness of an object or drawing.

5. SPACE: This is the distance between two objects.

6. SHAPE: This is the outline of a figure.

7. FORM: This is the shape of anything with volume or mass.

PRINCIPLES OF ART

This is also known as principles of organization. These are the guide which helps the artist to make effective use of the elements of art. They include:

1. VARIETY: This is the use of different element of art in a design e.g. the use of different types of lines, shapes, colours, etc.

2. RHYTHM: This is the flow of movement achieved by the repetition of an element of art e.g. wall paper and fabric.

3. PROPORTION: This is expressed in the use of size, numbers and space.

4. DOMINANCE: This implies that certain elements of art are assumed to be more important than others.

5. REPETITION: This is the repeated use of a motif in a design.

6. BALANCE: This is the correct placement and distribution of elements of art, e.g. shape, form, line and tone/value.

7. HARMONY: This implies that all elements in the drawing should be arranged harmoniously.

PAPIER MACHE

Papier mache is the use of pulp (pounded paper) mixed with starch / glue as a binder to produce / create objects of beauty / storage items.

MATERIALS USED IN PAPER MACHE PRODUCTION

1.Old newspaper, Cardboard papers, Old cement paper, Tissue paper.
2.Water
3.Mortar and Pestle
4.Starch / Glue,
5.Vessel
6.Grease oil
7.Poster colour
8.Container for mixing Pulp with starch

METHOD / TECHNIQUE OF PRODUCTION

1.Get or fetch old papers e.g. old newspapers, cement bags etc.

2.Tear inside a sizeable container

3.Add enough water to get it soaked for about 2 -3 days

4.When paper is very soft, collect and squeeze out excess water

5.Pound properly in a mortar to further soften and turn to pulp.

6.Prepare starch flour paste or glue and mix properly with the smoothly pounded paper (pulp).

7.It is now ready to use.

TEAMWORK AND SENSE OF BELONGING

A tree does not make a forest, so goes the wise saying. There is a limit to which an individual can affect his environment. Therefore, in order to strike a big deal, the coming together or joint effort of people to achieve a common goal is highly desirable. That is to say, man needs the co-operation of others to live and excel which is team work.

A team is a group of individuals with different skills or talents playing different roles but who work together to achieve a common goal and objective. For example, a manufacturing company's team is made up of the security, etc. Another is a school that is made up of the principal, vice principal, teachers, counselors, non-teaching staff, etc. They all work and aim at improving the educational standard of the society.

IMPORTANCE OF TEAMWORK

1. It helps in acquisition of skills or transfer of skills from person to person.

2. Team works ensures or aids easy and perfect achievement of goals.

3. Team work reduces the time frame of completing the work and increases the quality.

4. It fasters job or career satisfaction, self-esteem and staff wellbeing.

5. It serves as learning for both learners and teachers.

SENSE OF BELONGING

Sense of belonging is the belief and total conviction that one is fully and totally a part of a situation, event or happening. It is the drive that propels one's interest in a particular thing. It is the belief in realizing one's position, stand, demand, challenge, interest, zeal and expectations in ensuring the success of a venture.

HOW TO ACHIEVE SENSE OF BELONGING

COMMITMENT: To achieve sense of belonging, hard work, loyalty and commitment must be exhibited by all members of the organization.

LOVE: A strong feeling of loyalty and love to an institution or country can help to build sense of belonging.
CO-OPERATION: Understanding and working together diligently and faithfully to achieve a common goal is a vital ingredient to boosting sense of belonging.

FORGIVENESS: Members of team must not allow any behavioral short-comings to affect their productivity. Hence, the need for forgiveness.
