CONFLICT IN OUR SOCIETY

MEANING OF CONFLICT

Conflict can simply be defined as misunderstanding or disagreement between two or more people.

It is a struggle or clash between opposing forces, people or ideas.

TYPES OF CONFLICT

1. Family Conflict: Disagreements among siblings, parents or other relative due to issues like personality differences, favouritism or power struggles.

2. Social Conflict: Issues like exam malpractices, cultism, drug abuse, and robbery.

3. Interpersonal Conflict: A misunderstanding between two people, which can be caused by miscommunication or a difference in opinion e.g Two colleagues arguing over the best way to complete a project.

4. Intrapersonal Conflict: It is an internal struggle within an individual's own mind, often due to conflicting goals, values or desires e.g a lawyer who believes their client is guilty but must represent them anyway, experiences an internal value conflict.

EXAMPLES OF CONFLICT

a. Interpersonal Conflict: Two friends who both want to use the same vacation fund for different purposes are in conflict.

b. Internal Conflict: A person struggling with a difficult moral decision is experiencing an internal conflict.

c. Structural Conflict: Two companies in the same industry competing for the same customers are in conflict.

d. International Conflict: Wars or disputes between countries over territory or resources are examples of international conflict.

THE NATURE OF CONFLICT

Conflict is not always about hostility or negative emotions. It is a dynamic interaction between people with differing needs or values. What makes it "Conflict" is the clash between these differences.

Understanding the nature of conflict is crucial in managing it effectively. Often conflicts arise from the following:

Causes of conflict in our society

1. Resource Scarcity: Competition for limited resources like water, land or job can lead to conflict.

2. Social and Economic Inequality: Large gaps between the rich and the poor and unequal access to opportunities can create resentment and instability.

3. Political Power Struggles: Conflict over political dominance, weak governance, corruption and authoritarian regimes can find violence and unrest.

4. Cultural and Religious Differences: Varying beliefs, norms, and practices can lead to misunderstandings and conflict, especially when different groups interact.

5. Poor Communication: Misunderstandings, lack of clear information and a failure to listen can escalate disagreements.

6. Perceived or Real Injustice: Discrimination based on race, gender or status as well as inconsistent or unjust policies are major sources of conflict.

PEACE EDUCATION

Peace education means living in friendship with others. It is the absence of war or violence in a society.

Peace is a state of harmony characterized by lack of violence, conflict behaviours and freedom from fear of violence.

IMPORTANCE OF THE HUMAN RIGHT IN PEACE BUILDING.

Human right plays a big role in building peace, especially for young people. When everyone's rights are respected, it helps create a stable and fair society, which is key for peace. Here are some ways human rights contribute to peace building.

1. Promote dignity and respect: When people are treated with dignity, they are more likely to resolve conflicts peacefully.

2. Reduces inequality: Human rights help address injustices, reducing tensions that can lead to conflict.

3. Encourages dialogue: Respecting human rights creates space for people to talk and resolve issues without violence.

4. Fosters Justice: Rights help to resolve disputes fairly.

5. Encourages Participation: Rights empower individuals to contribute to peace.

6. Reducing Conflicts: By knowing and respecting each other's rights, we can avoid misunderstanding and conflicts

7. Fostering Understanding and Tolerance: By learning about human rights, we appreciate our differences and live in harmony.

NON VIOLENT APPROACH TO CONFLICT RESOLUTION

It is an approach to settle conflict that emphasizes communication, cooperation and empathy. It is based on the idea that conflict can be resolved without the use of violence and that by understanding the underlying issues and emotions involved, individuals can find mutually beneficial solutions. Some non-violent approaches include; dialogue, negotiation, mediation, tolerance, forgiveness and compromise.

MEANING AND IMPLICATION OF GLOBAL CITIZENSHIP

Global Citizenship means seeing oneself as a member of the whole world, not just one country. A global citizen is someone who is aware of and understands the wider world and their place in it. They are citizens of the world. They take an active role in their community and work with others to make our planet more peaceful, sustainable and fairer.

Global Citizenship is like being part of something bigger than just your country or community. It is about recognizing we are all connected, and our actions affect people and the planet worldwide.

Implication includes:

i. Feeling a sense of belonging to a global community

ii. Being aware of global issues and taking action

iii. Embracing diversity and promoting human rights

iv. Collaborating with people from different backgrounds

v. Thinking beyond local interests to global well-being.

DIMENSIONS OF PEACE EDUCATION

Peace educations have several dimensions including:

i. Self-awareness: Knowing yourself, your strength, weakness and emotions

ii. Conflict resolution: Handling disputes peacefully like a boss

iii. Communication Skills: Talking it out, not fighting

iv. Empathy: Putting yourself in others shoes.

v. Tolerance: Embracing differences living together in peace.

vi. Values and Attitudes: This dimension aims to cultivate a commitment to values that support a culture of peace e.g tolerance, respect for differences etc.

CONFLICT PREVENTION AND RESOLUTION

Meaning and principles of unity

Unity refers to the state of being in harmony and working together with a shared purpose, despite individual differences in background, opinions or interests.

OR

It means working together as one voice, respecting each other's differences and focusing on the common good is key to preventing and resolving disagreements peacefully.

Principles of Unity

The principles of unity that support conflict prevention and resolution centers on developing positive national values and good citizenship skills.

Key principles of Unity include:

1. Tolerance: This is willingness to accept opinions, behaviours and values of others even when they differ from one's own, which is crucial for preventing conflict.

2. Cooperation: The ability to work together with others, pooling resources, labour and ideas to achieve common goals. This fosters a sense of teamwork and shared purpose, discouraging conflict.

3. Respect for Others: Treating every individual with dignity and courtesy, regardless of their background or status. This helps in avoiding personal attacks and promotes active listening and understanding during disagreements.

4. Fairness and Justice: Ensuring that all people are treated equally according to the rule of law and avoiding favouritism. Upholding these values helps to prevent resentment and a sense of injustice that often fuels conflict.

5. Honesty and Integrity: Being truthful and having strong moral principles builds trust among people. Trust is a fundamental ingredient for healthy relationships and effective conflict resolution.

6. Accepting Responsibility: Acknowledging one's own contribution to a problem rather than blaming others helps in finding a complete and better solution to the conflict.

TECHNIQUES FOR ACHIEVING UNITY

1. Open Communication: Learn to express feelings and needs without blaming other (e.g. "I feel sad when you don't let me play" instead of "You are mean")

2. Active Listening: Listen actively, giving the other person a chance to tell their side completely without interruption.

3. Empathy: Put yourself in their shoes. Try to understand the other person's feelings and perspective to build better relationships and reduce hostility.

4. Mediation: Know when a problem is too big to handle alone and involve a teacher, counselor or neutral third party.

5. Collaborative Problem Solving: Work together, the involved parties should work together to think of many possible solutions, even silly ones, without judging them at first.

6. Agree on a Solution: The student should choose a solution that both sides can agree on. This often involves compromise, where each person gives up a little to get something they want.

7. Respect Diversity: Foster an environment that celebrates differences in background, opinions and cultures can help prevent conflicts arising from prejudices or bias.

CONFLICT RESOLUTION STEPS

1. Early identification of problems
2. Good communication skills.
3. Dialogue and discussion
4. Involvement of third party
5. Fair decision-making
6. Follow-up

CONFLICT RESOLUTION MEASURES

Conflicts can be resolved in the following ways:

1. Dialogue: Conflict can be amicably resolved through dialogue. This is a process whereby the parties to the conflict, sit down and discuss their differences and reach mutual understanding.

2. Compromise: This is a situation whereby the parties to the conflict are ready to reach a mutual and acceptable understanding. Each party is ready to give up something and strike a balance such that there is no loser or winner.

3. Negotiation: This has to do with two parties involved in the conflict initiating and facilitating the settlement through discussion without a third party.

4. Mediation: This has to do with bringing in a third party or mediator to act as a middle man to take the conflict resolution.

5. Litigation: In this case, the conflict is taken to a court of law. The party that takes the dispute to the court is called the plaintiff while the party that is taken to the court is referred to as the defendant.

STRATEGIES TO RESOLVE CONFLICT

Conflict resolution strategies should focus on simple, practical skills that promote empathy and communication.

Key strategies include:

1. Obeying rules and laws
2. Listening carefully to others
3. Showing respect to others
4. Managing emotions
5. Seeking peaceful solutions
6. Encouraging compromise
7. Promoting tolerance and understanding

5. A good citizen should show due respect for the national flag anthem of his country.

6. Every qualified citizen should vote during the election.

7. A good citizen should assist the security agencies in preventing crime and arresting criminals.

IMPORTANCE OF RIGHTS AND DUTIES IN NATION BUILDING

1. Development: The level of development in a country would be faster when citizens carry out their duties or obligations and respect the rights of other citizens.

2. Welfare services to the People: When citizens perform their duties, the government should be able to provide adequately for their welfare by providing employment opportunities, unemployment benefits, roads, schools, as well as health and recreational facilities and also create national monuments.

3. Orderliness: There would be social order in the country when citizens carry out their duties, respect the rights of other citizens and avoid vices such as riots and disobedience to traffic rules and regulations.

4. Peace: There would be peace and harmony in the society when the people perform their duties and respect the rights of other citizens

5. Social order: Society functions effectively when citizens cooperate with one another and perform their duties properly.

6. Rights are received, while duties are performed.

DIFFERENCES BETWEEN RIGHTS AND DUTIES

1. Rights refer to the privileges or benefits while duties are the obligations or functions to be performed by responsible citizens.

2. Certain rights could be denied of citizens for violating some aspect of the country's laws while punishment and sanctions could be meted out to people that fail to perform certain duties such as payment of tax

3. A citizen has the right to vote at a stipulated age while a citizen must register and go to vote.

4. A citizen has the right to life while a citizen must not commit suicide or murder as a duty or by law.

5. A citizen has the right to ownership of property while the citizen must ensure that his property is built in accordance with rules and regulations of the land.

RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN RIGHTS AND DUTIES

Rights and duties depend on each other.

1. Rights give citizens freedom, while duties ensure that those freedoms are respected and protected.

2. Society will become disorderly if people enjoy their rights but neglect their duties.

3. Performing our duties helps others to also enjoy their rights.

4. Your right to life is protected when others perform their duty not to harm or kill you. Likewise, your right to education works when the government performs its duty to provide schools and when students perform their duty to study and obey school rules.
